Affordable Connectivity Program
Helping Households Connect

The Affordable Connectivity Program is an FCC program that helps connect families and households struggling to afford internet service.

The Affordable Connectivity Program provides:

- Up to $30/month discount for broadband service;
- Up to $75/month discount for households on qualifying Tribal lands; and
- A one-time discount of up to $100 for a laptop, desktop computer, or tablet purchased through a participating provider if the household contributes more than $10 but less than $50 toward the purchase price.

The Affordable Connectivity Program is limited to one monthly service discount and one device discount per household.

Who Is Eligible?

A household is eligible for the Affordable Connectivity Program if the household income is at or below 200% of the Federal Poverty Guidelines, or if a member of the household meets at least one of the criteria below:

- Received a Federal Pell Grant during the current award year;
- Meets the eligibility criteria for a participating provider's existing low-income internet program;
- Participates in one of these assistance programs:
    - SNAP
    - Medicaid
    - Federal Public Housing Assistance
    - Supplemental Security Income (SSI)
    - WIC
    - Veterans Pension or Survivor Benefits
    - or Lifeline;
- Participates in one of these assistance programs and lives on Qualifying Tribal lands:
    - Bureau of Indian Affairs General Assistance
    - Tribal TANF
    - Food Distribution Program on Indian Reservations
    - Tribal Head Start (income based)
